The Emanuel John Janikis Scholarship Fund

Background

Emanuel John Janikis was a strong man who loved with his whole heart. He was a man of strong faith which was evident in the way he lived life. Emanuel was kind, considerate, honorable, humble and a gentle soul. He was quick to analyze, but always careful to express the truth. These qualities, and others, made him an excellent husband, father, friend and colleague. Emanuel graduated from Mount Union College with a degree in Business Administration and Economics. He later attended the University of Akron where he earned his Master's in Taxation. Emanuel practiced accounting for over 40 years. On March 1, 2020 Emanuel passed away from pancreatic cancer. The Emanuel John Janikis Scholarship Fund was created in his memory to assist students entering college who exemplify his personal attributes and share his love for business.
